

I gained so much experience and knowledge during my first week of conducting my On-the-Job Training. It is challenging but sometimes it is hard to do the things that they requested me to do

